STANISLAUS COLLEGE IS RUNNER-UP IN NATIONAL BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

Local Team Wins Four Out of Five Games, Playing Sensational Y Fine Ball at the Chicago Meet of Catholic Schools in Chicago

The outstanding event of the school year and possibly the big event of many years athletically speaking at St. Stanislaus College, is the honor which the team won for itself this past week at Chicago of the National Prep-School basketball teams in the annual tournament, in which the Bay St. Louis team was runner-up for national championship, being defeated only in the final game by the strong De LaSalle team of Chicago. The Stanislaus boys, eight of whom made the trip to Chicago accompanied by Brother Peter, president, and Coach Grady Perkins, played what Chicago papers characterized as wonderful ball and secured for themselves, according to press reports, a reputation for sportsmanship which caused the audience to give them overwhelming ovations as they faced their strong opponents.

The local men who were in Chicago for their fifth consecutive season, played five games, winning four of them and losing the final game by only nine points. The games as played and the scores follow:

Stanislaus 39 Princeton City, Okla. 17.
Stanislaus 38, Monmouth, N. J. 17.
Stanislaus 23, Dubuque, Iowa 22.
Stanislaus 32, Peoria, Ill. 31.
Stanislaus 16, De LaSalle, Chicago 25.

The combined points to be won by Stanislaus in the five games was 157, while the combined opponents points was 95.

Awards Received

The awards received by the Stanislaus College team include a silver gold medal for second place, and gold medals for all players.

Obai Ldner, star guard for the team, has been named as the All-American guard for the national Catholic prep teams.

The students and faculty of St. Stanislaus were rooting for their team during every part of the game. Everyone at the college waited almost breathlessly to receive the reports at the end of each quarter of play which were sent by telegram to the school. A tense moment was that when word reached one class room five minutes before school dismissal that Stanislaus had won its game. A great wave of enthusiasm burst all bound and the reverberations reached every part of the school so that every student was automatically dismissed to rejoice.

Preparations

Every possible preparation was made by the team for the team's success. Practice of the most valuable type was followed regularly and the spirit of sportsmanship which predominated was an index of the excellent coaching and the support of the school.

Coach Grady Perkins has reason to be proud of his team and the school has reason to be proud of its coach for his wonderful work with the men has meant much of their success.

Coach Perkins said after the final game was over: "All right, boys, we will go after it again next year." And this is the spirit which has placed a small Southern school in the limelight nationally among the large teams of America.

Over Postal Co's. Lines

Report of the games from Chicago was received over a direct line of the Postal Telegraph company in Bay St. Louis, in charge of Mrs. G. Y. Blaine. On Sunday night, when the finals were in process, over a thousand people had gathered around the Blaine premises a Hancock street.

The Postal Telegraph Company service was prompt and satisfactory rendered in every report and proved of interest and value to the local citizenry so keenly keyed.

CHOOSING NATIONAL FLOWER BY VOTING

The Mississippi Association for the Conservation of Wild Life, is cooperating with the American Nature Association of Washington, D. C., in conducting a national flower poll to determine the people's choice of a national flower, according to an announcement made by Miss Fanny Cook of Mississippi A. & M. College, state chairman.

Every American has a vote. Every wild flower is a candidate, though the ideal choice should bloom in all parts of the country, be available at all times of the year, be popular and symbolic of the nation and suitable for decorative purposes. The leading flowers are the wild rose, columbine, goldenrod, violet, phlox, daisy and mountain laurel.

Every individual is asked to vote, clubs, schools, or organizations are asked to vote and send in their choice for first, second and third places and the number voting for each, the result of the vote to be sent either to Miss Cook or to the American Nature Association at Washington.

After this referendum is made, Congress will be asked to establish officially the people's choice.

PURCHASES ECONOMY STORE HERE

J. N. Ward, Former Express Agent, Buys Store; Will Take it Over April 1

J. N. Ward, who has been agent at the Bay St. Louis station for the Am. Railway Express Company since June 26, 1920, has resigned his position, effective April 1, and announces the purchase of the Economy Store facing the depot, from Philip Levine, and will take over the store as owner and manager Monday, April 1. He will be assisted in the conduct of the business by his wife.

Mr. Ward makes this change because the new policy of the express company since it has been taken over by the railroad companies will change the methods of handling local office in abolishing the position of driver, and secondly, because he believes now is a logical time to enter into business on the Coast.

"I have striven during my time at the express office to give satisfaction to the public," Mr. Ward said. "I shall carry into my new business the same methods of courtesy, consideration and a definite desire to please. I believe that I should continue with the express company under the changed methods that I could not continue to give the same service I have made my watchword in dealing with the public, and I welcome the opportunity of doing it in business in this community, where I have found the people so delightful to do business with during my years here."

"I believe in the future of Bay St. Louis and the Coast. I foresee years of prosperity and growth for this section. I like the people here. I want to be identified with the business interests of the Coast, hence I welcome the opportunity of locating here and continuing my home here," Mr. Ward said.

Employed in New Orleans, John Kackler, who has been connected with the local express office as driver of the delivery wagon for the past 18 months, and whose position under the new method of handling the local office would have terminated here April 1, was called to New Orleans to report to the superintendent of traffic of the express company, Mr. Howell, for a position there, he leaving for his new duties Wednesday. Mr. Kackler has been working under J. N. Ward, agent, whose resignation is effective April 1.

TWO HOMES HERE TO BE USED IN BETTER HOMES

National Better Homes Week Will Be Observed in Hancock County

LOCAL COLLEGE TRAINS BOYS TO OVERCOME OBSTACLES

St. Stanislaus Is the "School of Character," N. O. Paper Pays Tribute to Value

Under the caption of "St. Stanislaus College at Bay St. Louis: Daily Obstacles," the New Orleans Times-Picayune of a few mornings since carries an interesting article and most complimentary but deserved mention of one of the most outstanding institutions of this section of the Southern States, and which follows:

"St. Stanislaus College, which is located at Bay St. Louis, Miss., is known as the school of character. The work of the faculty of the college is in building and developing the character of the student, professional and business men of the future, their students.

"At this college there is no attempt whatsoever to coddle the boy or to remove the obstacles from his path. Here he is trained to overcome these obstacles and to learn self-conquest. Here he is taught that battles are to be won, not lost. At this school he is taught to be a real man.

"St. Stanislaus values what a boy is at graduation, but values far more what he is.

"The above may give the impression to the thoughtless that St. Stanislaus is all work and no play. On the contrary this college has always been prominent in athletics, and even the smallest boy has an opportunity for regular athletic training under the competent coaching of Grady Perkins, famous foot ball star and all-around athlete, who takes a personal interest in every boy in the school. Athletic training is compulsory but each boy may select his preference in sports.

"The faculty of St. Stanislaus consists of men devoted exclusively to teaching as a life work. The present faculty is headed by Brother Peter, president, who has served at Stanislaus for over two decades. Brother Robert, vice-president, and Brother Casimir, member of the board.

"These men have learned the art of teaching boys to be the right kind of men in addition to teaching them reading, writing and arithmetic. A graduate of St. Stanislaus College is well fitted mentally, physically and morally, to meet the world.

LAKE SHORE COMMUNITY ORGANIZES

Community Organization Is Formed Wednesday Night and Officers Elected

Residents of Lake Shore and neighborhood formed a community organization Wednesday night, when a large and enthusiastic group met at the school building. The organization is the fourth to be formed in the county under the supervision of the farm and home county agents and will be sponsored under the supervision of Miss Mayme O'Dom, home demonstration agent, who presided at the organization meeting, and F. B. Pittman, farm agent, who was detained from attendance at the first meeting by illness.

After the purpose and plan of the organization was explained those present voted to organize and officers were elected as follows: J. P. Usher, president; Ed Green, vice-president; Miss Lelia Ladner, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. May Dubois, chairman for girls 4-H club; Ed Green, chairman for boys 4-H club; Mrs. J. P. Usher, homemakers chairman; Mrs. J. J. Yarbrough, health chairman; J. J. Yarbrough, program chairman. The agriculture chairman and his committee will be appointed after conference with Mr. Pittman, and announced before next meeting. The officers and chairman will meet Wednesday night, April 3, 7 o'clock, at the school building in Lakeshore in a special conference with Miss O'Dom and Mr. Pittman.

A feature of the meeting was the hearty support given by Prof. A. S. McQueen and the faculty of the school, all of whom were present for the meeting. Prof. McQueen made a fine talk to the assembled residents telling them of the value of the proposed organization.

The newly formed organization sent some lovely flowers to Bay St. Louis to be used for decoration at the art exhibit which the King's Daughters Circle is fostering at the hospital this week.

EXHIBIT OF ART WORK ENJOYABLE

Gulf Coast Art Association Will Continue Exhibit Through Sunday

The exhibit of art work by members of the Gulf Coast Art Association now on display at the King's Daughters Emergency Hospital on Main street under the auspices of the King's Daughters Circle will continue there through Sunday afternoon and the show rooms are open to the public daily from 10 o'clock to 5 o'clock. It is urged to visit the exhibit and enjoy the excellent pictures shown.

The exhibit opened Tuesday afternoon with a pleasant reception at which the King's Daughters were hostesses with Mrs. A. F. Fournier, Mrs. E. J. Leonard, Mrs. Carl Marshall and Mrs. Mary Perkins in charge. Prof. William Woodward, president of the association, was present and made an interesting address on modern art and stressed the necessity of furthering art interest on the Coast.

Approximately 50 attended the opening reception and the exhibit has been well attended daily.

Hostesses Wednesday were Mrs. H. A. Leche and Mrs. George Boh of St. Margaret's Daughters. Thursday the Schubert Music Club was hostess with Mrs. George Rea as chairman. McDonald as chairman. Sunday the King's Daughters Circle will be hostesses with Mrs. Fournier and Mrs. Leonard in charge.

Not only are the pictures creating much pleasurable interest among those who view them but the hanging of the exhibit is a matter of comment, the walls tinted for the occasion being a fine background for the pictures. A silver offering is taken for the benefit of the hospital fund.

Among those aiding in the decoration for the reception were Miss Mayme O'Dom, who brought in wild flowers and Mrs. C. G. Moreau who loaned a lovely potted azalea.

Ben Weil, Daily Courier, of Charleston, Ill., Visits Bay Rotary Club Wednesday

Ben Weil, editor and publisher of the Evening Courier, Charleston, Ill., while motoring South and visiting the Gulf Coast, accompanied by Mrs. Weil and the Misses Weil, spent part of Wednesday in Bay St. Louis.

"Ben," a Rotarian, attended the meeting of the local club, thus making up his attendance. By invitation he was the principal speaker of the luncheon and chose as his subject good roads in Illinois, telling of an initial bond issue of $60,000,000 and later of a $100,000,000 bond issue for permanent roadways; that a gasoline tax amply took care of interest and retiring principal.

"The pay-as-you-go system," said Editor Weil is fallacious from every aspect and in the subsequent end of a failure of the heavy bond issue, gives ample fund at one time to enable the determining of a vast program, with a minimum overhead. You can do, in proportion, more work for less money, and this fact is recognized and accepted.

"Concrete," he said, "spread over a number of years, was the cheapest and, of course the best. The longer it lasted the cheaper was the cost."

Mr. Weil plans to place one of his young daughters at Gulf Park College for next session.

RICHARDSON TO HANG ON APRIL 26, DECISION OF LOWER COURT CONFIRM'D

Three Dissent As Sentence of Hancock County Court Is Upheld—Attorneys Will See New Hearing

The death sentence of Silas Richardson, Bay St. Louis negro, convicted by the Hancock county circuit court for the murder of John Damb-rino, was confirmed Monday in the state supreme court and April 26, was the date set for the hanging.

Three judges of the state supreme court, Etheridge, Griffith and Anderson, were dissenting judges in the decision, thus making the division of the court divided in half. It is understood that this is an en banc decision, the equal division of the court with three judges for confirmation and three for reversal meant that the lower court should be upheld, as this is the practice when there is a decision of this character.

Richardson's appeal to the supreme court was made by R. W. Thompson, Jr., of the firm of Mize, Mize and Thompson, and Myron P. Nailing of the firm of Foster and Nailing, both of Gulfport. These two attorneys had been appointed by Judge W. A. White to defend Richardson. A sensational court case followed the apprehension of Richardson here captured after a man search of twelve days. Richardson had shot and killed Damb-rino and wounded Mark Oliver, Bay St. Louis chief of police, in the city jail here when they went into the cell where Richardson was to obtain a key, it was said.

The attorneys for Richardson announced immediately following the receipt of the state supreme court decision that steps would be taken to again get the matter before the supreme court in an effort to prevent the hanging of Richardson, stating that they would file a suggestion of error. The law permits 15 days for this action.

Judge Etheridge wrote the dissenting opinion which was concurred in by Judges Griffith and Anderson. "It was a reversible error for the court below to refuse to permit circumstances under which Richardson's arrest was made to be shown in evidence," Judge Etheridge said.

"The cause should be remanded for a new trial in which facts bearing on the arrest and search should be fully inquired into," he said.

The shed which extends from the station to the tracks is 40 feet wide and 125 feet in length. Underneath the shed is a concrete yard.

It is planned to pave a section to the front and side of the station for parking, this paving estimated to cost around $7,000. As evidences of construction are removed about the building flower beds will be planted, in keeping with the pretty park which surrounds the station.

Those Who Built the Station

Lionel Favret of New Orleans had the general contract for the building. Representing the contractor on the job was H. Boitman, superintendent, who pushed the job to completion ahead of schedule. Biloxi Plumbing Company had the plumbing and heating work. F. A. Clegg & Company of Louisville had the electric work. Schneider of New Orleans did the painting. Henry Piernas of Biloxi did the plastering.

Baker B. Smick, building inspector under the chief engineer of the L. & N., W. H. Courtenay, represented the railroad construction department on the job. J. C. Haly, architect for the L. & N. also out of chief engineer's office, drew the plans for the building.

All material which could be purchased locally was bought from C. McDonald, W. A. McDonald and A. Scafield, this material included lumber, cement, gravel, sand and plaster. The steel had to be secured from away from here.

Ground for the building was broken October 22, under the direction of W. R. Morris, assistant chief engineer at Bay St. Louis and work began at once.

Mrs. Maurice Friedman vs Roy O. Allen, a case in which plaintiff requested damages for injuries sustained in an auto accident, resulted in the jury bringing in a verdict favoring plaintiff and allowing damages of $2500.

W. J. Ladner vs Louisville & Nashville railroad company, resulted in defendant paying cost of court, the case having been settled out of court.

Thomas Arnold vs H. H. Swayze asking court to set aside a former order of the court dismissing said cause with a writ proceeding, motion was overruled.

Tuesday two cases were heard:

Mrs. Homer Dixon vs Louisville & Nashville railroad company was heard before J. L. Taylor setting as special judge, demurrer overruled and defendant given 60 days in which to plead.

In case of Mrs. Maurice Friedman vs Roy O. Allen in which verdict was given Monday, defendant requested a new trial but this was overruled. Usual allowances for those who served the court were granted.

THE MEXICAN REVOLUTION.

The Mexican revolution naturally creates interest in the United States. The newspapers, with little real news at hand, play up the struggle between two armies which might total sixty thousand men. As a military maneuver, it is a good practice, but, to Mexico, it is vital.

We know so little about Mexican conditions that it would be foolish to attempt any opinion as to the merits of the two sides. Generally, however, the present Mexican government has won good opinion in this republic, and has the backing of the United States government.

However, no one should lose sight of the great necessity for the Mexican people to accommodate themselves to orderly process of government. Revolutions are entirely too prevalent. The great lesson that is needed south of the Rio Grande, is that revolution does not pay, and it is we suspect, largely on this account that the American government is lending what aid and comfort it can to the administration of President Gil.

PROSPECTIVE SENATORIAL CANDIDATES.

The return to the state of Senator Pat Harrison has aroused some interest in the forthcoming senatorial campaign scheduled for next year. Perhaps the most prominently mentioned contestant against Senator Harrison is Lieut. Gov. Bidwell Adam, who, according to his friends has his eye on the senatorial toga. Gov. Adam has made no formal announcement, but it is known that he is casting about and expects to make the race. During the absence of Gov. Bilbo from the state recently Gov. Adam has had an opportunity to show his ability as acting governor and this young man continues to make friends. A contest between these two sons of the Gulf Coast would be interesting.

EASTER, A SEASON OF REJOICING FOR ALL.

THE spirit of Easter is not one of sorrow and regret but rather one of rejoicing. Coming as it does in the growth of springtime and the awakening of nature, a prevailing essence of growth and joy in life is felt in nature and this attitude of growth translated into spiritual response creates the idea of Easter happiness.

Essentially a religious festival, Easter finds its beginning many ages before the dawning of the Christian era and is one of several church festivals that grew out of pre-religious practices. Celebrating as it does the rise of our Lord from the grave in which he had lain since his crucifixion three days before, typifying in his resurrection the hope of the world in a life after death and proving in incontestable manner the Godhood of Jesus Christ, the recurrence of Easter each season should bring into the human soul a depth of rejoicing that surpasses expression. A knowledge that Jesus died for the sins of the world, that through his God-ship he conquered death and rose to glory where he awaits his redeemed saints should create in every heart and mind a definite desire to observe Easter with happiness translated into prayer and praise of the savior of mankind.

Easter is understandable only in its relation to the growth and development of the world. Preceding the celebration of Easter as a Christian holy day the blackness of despair rested on the world. No outlook for future happiness in a heaven prepared by a savior was given to lonely souls. Dating Easter as the period of the rise of Christianity and its power in the world, this season reminds man that the great developments of civilization are directly a result of Christianity and the principles of a religion taught by Jesus who arose from the Grave Easter morning.

Let us greet Easter as it dawns this Sunday with a spirit purified of all but a promise to ourselves and to our God that we will do all in our power to further the principles of good which his coming to the world gave as precepts for right living.

COMMUNITY GOOD WILL AN ASSET OF GREAT VALUE.

One of the greatest assets that any community can possess is a feeling of "good will" between the inhabitants. Bay St. Louis has many people within its borders. Most of them are honestly and sincerely attempting to live meritorious lives. There is no reason why they should not include in their program an intentional cultivation of a spirit of friendliness and kindness toward each other.

We have heard of two citizens of Bay St. Louis who, not many months ago, spent their vacation at a popular resort where they met many people of charm and culture. Talking about their new found friends they came to the conclusion that, here in Bay St. Louis, there were many such delightful companions to be enjoyed by those who approached them in the right way and with the right spirit of mutual good will.

There is much truth in their realization. We who live in Bay St. Louis pursue our vocations in search of the coin that we need, and very often we become so intent upon its acquisition that we spare not the time that is necessary to become acquainted with our neighbors. In the older days it was different, but this modern age of speed in all things, finds us rushing through life, without taking the time to enjoy the best neighbors that can be found in the world.

As a community asset there is nothing so inviting to new-comers as a healthy social spirit among the inhabitants of a town or city. People who come to Bay St. Louis will be charmed with it if they find here a spirit of neighborliness, a spirit of helpful service and people who rejoice as much in the friendship of their own people as in the recognition of money.

Therefore, this week, The Sea Coast Echo suggests to all who read this article that they resolve, at once, to act upon the suggestion outlined, and to be neighborly in word and deed, to serve their friends truly and generously, and to live a part of each day for the benefit of all the citizens of this city, county, and, in fact, the entire Coast.

BAY ST. LOUIS TEAM SCORES

There is every reason to congratulate the personae of St. Stanislaus basketball team at Chicago in national tournament, winning its way through arduous process of elimination down to a point of the finals where Chicago stalwarts snatched victory.

Our Bay St. Louis team distinguished itself on every side and at every turn. The prowess, alertness, skill and splendid training by Coach Grady Perkins were contributing factors to success, and noteworthy is the fact the famous Rock-a-chaws have again inscribed their names and fame of Bay St. Louis and St. Stanislaus College high on the scroll of athletics in national interest. Our people of this section cannot but feel the thrill of a pardonable pride.

Bro. Peter, president of Stanislaus, Coach Perkins and the glory of the team, Charlie Gennard, George J. Toca, Jr., Luke Saucier, Obal Ladner, Ignatius Collotta, Casper Kramer, Ike Wilson and Leo Heinan were anxiously awaited. Their return home was an occasion of celebration well worthy and every citizen shared in the outburst of welcome and in the spontaneity of that enthusiasm which proclaimed red blood.

MAYOR REFUSES SALARY INCREASE

It is worth nothing that Mayor Frank X. Schwab, of Buffalo, N. Y., elected when the salary of mayor was $8,000 a year, refuses and rejects an offered salary of $12,000, saying that he was elected to serve at the lower figure and should not raise his salary.

Very commendable, indeed, and to be highly praised. Nevertheless Mayor Schwab will get little consideration from the voters if he happens to run afoul of their sentiment on some minor matter. Without knowing to which party the mayor belongs, we wish him one term at $12,000, after his present time expires.

John D. Rockefeller, Jr., wins his fight in the Standard Oil Company of Indiana and Colonel Stewart is defeated.

There have been few more bitter fights in the history of high finance.

On Tuesday John H. Perry, learned editor of Reading, Pennsylvania, Jacksonville, Florida, and other places predicting the Indiana result, said: "It is hard to fight dollars, in fact, you can't do it."

He added as an afterthought: "It is absolutely impossible to fight dollars when they happen to be right." Colonel Coblenz, of San Francisco and New York, remarked: "To the victor belongs the oils."

Colonel Stewart, bidding farewell to Standard Oil of Indiana, and probably preparing to run some other big oil company, had the satisfaction of reporting financial success for 1928. In the last year Standard Oil of Indiana has earned more than eighty-three million dollars profit, or 16.76 per cent on its capital. Earnings of the company increased more than 50 millions, as compared with 1927.

President Hoover, who summons the extra session of Congress to meet on April 15, is not an emotional man. But he must have been moved on writing the words, "Now, therefore, I, Herbert Hoover, President of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim and declare," etc.

After you have done farm chores as a small boy there must be considerable satisfaction in writing, "Now, therefore, I, President."

On April 15 farmers will have their day, and Congress will tell them, if it can, how to put a disorganized industry on a substantial, paying basis.

No manufacturer could make his plant pay if he had to close down all winter. The farmer must do that, and it is part of the problem.

President Hoover has a quality more important to executives than any, except sound judgment. HE MAKES UP HIS MIND QUICKLY. No "wait a day or two."

When told of the Mexican revolution, the President did not wait a week. In five minutes he had told his cabinet "Our business interest and duty demand support of the existing Mexican government."

He shipped guns and ammunition from army stores to President Fortas Gil, stopped shipments of ammunition, guns and airplanes to the revolutionists, and arranged for shipments of fighting planes to the Mexican government.

This does not imply complete approval of all that the Mexican Government has done, or disapproval of the revolutionary cause. It means that the President means to uphold stability of government.

Tom Taggart of Indiana is dead. He had an interesting life while it lasted, and it lasted seventy-two years. He was a political boss for a generation, controlling his state. He defeated Champ Clark and nominated Woodrow Wilson for the presidency.

Now that he is in heaven, and presumably knows everything, Mr. Taggart knows just how useful he was when his influence gave Woodrow Wilson the presidency.

ECHOES OF STANISLAUS COLLEGE

Bro. Cassimir put many boys to thinking last Saturday night. He made the assertion that the team would win by one point, that the winning team would have 3 points and that he could prove it. Everything came out just as he stated. Then some of the boys asked how did he know. Then he proved it to them by arithmetic progression and he was right!!!!

The Easter vacation starts Wednesday morning and ends following Tuesday morning.

The team brought a collection of awards from Chicago. A silver basketball, a large trophy for overcoming the greatest handicap in the second round to win. Each man on the team also received a gold basketball.

In preparation for the baseball season which starts immediately after Easter, last years pitching staff have been working out for the past week. Among last years pitchers reporting for practice are: "Cotton" Collier, Tom Egloff, Ed Forster, and "Pike" Telhiard. With all of last years pitchers still on hand to handle the mound work for this years team the outlook for baseball is exceedingly good.

Sports

Gus Cavalier's team won the right to be called the first all-star team of the senior basketball league by coming out on top in a six game series. Three teams participated in this series, captained by Haik, Cavalier, and C. Cassidy. Cavalier defeated Sam Haik's team in a thrilling game Saturday night to win first place. Each member of the winning team received silver medals. The members of the first team are: Cavalier, Korndorfer, Scafield, Wilcox, and Doggett. The receivers of bronze medals were Sam Haik, H. Boh, D. Gray, N. Dischler and Ford.

Death of W. J. Urquhart

News of the sudden death of W. J. Urquhart, of Chicago, and residing at Niles, Michigan, was received this week and occasions much sorrow. He died on March 10th from an attack of heart malady, following an illness during the winter of influenza.

His mother, aged 99 years, died a few days before Christmas.

Mr. Urquhart was the owner of a winter home on the North Beach Boulevard, adjoining the dwelling of Winfield Partridge and it was his ardent hope, frequently expressed over a period of a number of years, that he would some day live South, for the winters, at least. The advanced age of his mother, however forbade moving her and precluded following out his plans.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Urquhart had frequently visited here and were well known. The widow has the sympathy of many friends.

We should thank God for His goodness in helping our team. He certainly did answer our prayers. Make as many acts of thanksgiving as you did of petition.

The Mission committee reports that the boys have been generous with money for the missions. A dollar and nine cents has been received up to this time.

The number of visits broke all records this past week. A grand total of four thousand five hundred was made. A corresponding rise in the number of communions was shown.

WORK AND PLAY AT S. J. A.

Congratulations S. S. C.

Both teachers and students at S. J. A. are duly proud of the Red Devils. Their splendid playing in the Chicago tournament is truly deserving of our admiration and S. J. A. is "all there" with "fifteen" for the entire team. We heartily congratulate each boy and add our loudest praises to those of every one in Bay St. Louis.

League Games.

Interest and excitement were in evidence everywhere at S. J. A. during the past week when Coach Mary announced to her teams that they might form leagues among themselves. Three captains were chosen, Ima Mae, Judith and Anna Mae, who then proceeded to pick out their teams. An independent team was chosen from among the high school girls who had not played on regular teams during the year. Joan Mauffray was named captain of that team.

Independents vs Watchus.

The two first games were scheduled for Sunday afternoon. Joan Mauffray captain of the Independents started the ball a-going against Judith Mauffray captain of the Watchus. The Independents made a splendid fight and showed that in spite of the fact that they had not played basketball all year they could nevertheless hold their own. But the Watchus proved too strong for them and they were obliged to give the latter the victory with a score of 28-19.

Jumpeheads Down Speedy Six.

The second game played Saturday afternoon was a closely contested one. Captain Kate of the Speedy Six was determined that her team would win and she gave Anna Mae and her Jumpeheads a hot chase. During the second half the Speedy Six rallied their forces and brought their score close to that of their opponents. The game ended 15-13 in favor of the Jumpeheads.

Watchus Win League Championship Over Jumpeheads.

Sunday afternoon was to determine the champions of the S. J. A. leagues. The game was a tight one and evenly divided with either team only one or two points ahead at the end of each quarter. Captain Anna Blaize did not come into the game until the first half but her assistant forwards of the Blue Jay team did nobly and kept neck and neck with the Watchus. The final whistle saw the Jumpeheads 15 to the Watchus 16 and proclaimed them the champions by one point.

Easter Holidays.

S. J. A. will close Wednesday evening for the Easter holidays. The boarders, New Orleans bound, will leave on the three-thirty train and will return Tuesday evening. Studies are to be resumed Wednesday morning. After the lenten season the holidays are most welcome to the girls and they are looking forward anxiously to these days of relaxation.

The State of Mississippi.

Hancock County.

Board of Supervisors, March, 1929.

Be it remembered, that at the above stated term of the Board of Supervisors of said County, an order was made by said Board, which was in the following words and figures, to-wit:

Whereas heavy rains, that have occurred in Hancock County, have caused a great deal of damage to the Bay-Kin Road, and the County is without funds available to rebuild this bridge, and that it has been so damaged by said rains and floods, and

Whereas it is necessary that said bridge be built and the County being out of funds and unable to provide for the same and whereas the sum of $25,000.00 will have to be borrowed to rebuild said bridge, but it therefore ordered and it is now resolved that it is the intention of the Board of Supervisors of Hancock County to borrow the sum of $25,000.00 from the Hancock County Bank for the purpose of rebuilding the said bridge, paying interest at the rate of 6 per cent per annum from said amount, and to issue a negotiable note as an obligation of the County maturing not later than February 15th, 1930, bearing interest at the rate of not more than 6 per cent per annum, and said sum being borrowed in the anticipation of the taxes of 1929.

GUIDE POSTS TO Health and Happiness

By Bernarr Macfadden

SELECTING A WIFE.

Young men like to think that they select their wives; it caters to their vanity. But actually, it is often the wives who do the selecting. For example: A girl decides she wants a certain chap for her husband—and she sets out to get him. He may be willing, or he may not, but girls have a way of knowing how to win over the reluctant male, and in the end he usually succumbs.

But there are young men who really do select their wives, and it is to them that this little talk is directed. There are many standards of (surprise by which the ideal wife can be measured; tastes vary. But there are also certain innate qualities that a girl must possess in order to be a good wife to any man. And these are among them:

First of all she must possess a splendidly vigorous body. The more vital she is the better your chance for marital happiness.

She should be a natural, wholesome vivacious girl, who will be honest and above board in all her dealings with you. The painted, sexy little vamp is not the one to choose for your life partner; she is usually a "fair-weather" friend.

She should love you for what you are not for what you have.

She should have a background of wholesome family life in which she has learned to respect the rights of others, along with selfishness and loyalty. And she must have reverence for its divine associations.

"Handsome is as handsome does," is an old saying, but like many old sayings it has its foundation in truth. Beautifully molded features while pleasant to look upon, are not all-important, because the implacable march of Time changes them. But a beautifully molded character lasts as long as the spirit is in the body. And no character can be called beautiful that does not count among its dearest possessions a fine set of moral principles.

In choosing your wife, it must also be remembered that you are choosing the mother of your children, and unfortunately this is not always given enough consideration. Your wife should be fitted to bring into the world children of whom you can be proud. They should be a living, lusty, glowing tribute to your love. Scrawny, spindle-legged, knock-kneed or bow-legged children are anything but this.

But even though you agree heartily to this advice—watch out. Many a bright young man has said: "Oh, I'm just killing a little time. I have no serious intentions." But how about the girl's intentions? She may be serious and if she does not mean up to your ideals you are in danger.

Sometimes it is painful in the extreme to break off an association of this kind; like a painful surgical operation. But if you do not break it off now, it will break you up later on when your hopes and dreams of a blissful married life have gone to pieces on the rocks of disillusion.

FOX MOVIE TONE HAS FIRST DIALOGUE FARCE, THE GHOST TALKS

New York Stage Stars, Charles Eaton and Helen Twelvetrees, Head a Formidable List of Players in a Comedy of Crooks and a Haunted House

"The Ghost Talks," a Fox Movie-tone all-talking special farce comedy of feature length, the first film of its type so far produced is announced for showing at the A. & E. Theatre, where it will open a 3-day engagement starting Sunday evening.

Directed by Lew Seiler, who, in addition to his own capabilities as a screen humorist, has had at his command the services of a remarkably well-suited cast and an outstanding staff of technical men and writers, including the authors of the sparkling dialogue, The Ghost Talks, is held by those who have witnessed pre-viewings to be an entertainment unique among productions in which the lines are spoken from beginning to end.

The picture derives its uniqueness, it is said, partly from the fact that it represents the greatest elasticity in technique that the talkies have demonstrated so far. Speedy in its action with one laugh provoking situation racing on the heels of another the picture proves that every subtlety which can be captured by the camera for a silent drama can be caught also for a spoken drama.

The story centers around the ludicrous antics of Franklyn Green, a sixteen year-old youth who believes he is a detective because he holds a diploma from the Correspondence School of Scientific Detection of Duquesne, Iowa.

However, Franklyn's real vocation is room clerk and official greeter at a suburban hotel. All guests, therefore are subject to suspicion and scientific analysis. There comes to the hotel one night an attractive young woman, Marion Holt, asking accommodation.

Questioned by Green, she confides that her uncle had taken part in the robbery of a post-office truck and before he could make away with the loot died. The uncle had left her a paper describing where the money could be found—in an old haunted house.

In the meantime, four desperados have followed the young woman to the hotel, where they also get mixed up with "Camera Eye" Green. Although almost everything the latter does is ridiculous while he is doing it, he eventually finds a solution to the case.

POLICEMAN SEIZES CAR WITH LIQUOR

San Capdepon, Bay St. Louis traffic policeman, seized a Chevrolet coupe the night of March 19, as the car stood in the street before the W. O. W. hall and it was assumed the owner was in attendance at the dance. In the car was found 1-2 quarts of whiskey and a 32-20 pistol. So far the owner of the car has not admitted ownership or asked to secure the car from the officers. It is assumed that the car will be sold by officers.

Maccabees Meet

The Bay St. Louis Tent of Maccabees held a meeting Friday night of last week which had been postponed from Thursday night. A report on the dance which was given March 19, was made, showing that it had been a financial success. Another dance is planned to be given probably Saturday, April 13, though the date is not definitely set as yet. The dance will be a benefit in order to raise funds for the entertainment here May 2 and 3 of the state convention of Maccabees. Announcement was made that Mrs. Cora E. Phillips of Detroit, head of the junior department of the Maccabees, will be in attendance at the state convention.

A Laundry Hint

Never iron over snaps and buttons laid on a hard flat board. Double a Turkish towel or several thicknesses of blanket and stretch the garment button side down on the pad. The buttons will sink into the pad and leave a smooth surface to iron.

PAINFUL INDIGESTION

"I suffered a good while before I found something that would help me," writes Mr. E. W. Berry, of Neosho, Mo. "My trouble was indigestion, pains in my chest and a tight, bloated feeling that would make me feel smothered. Speaking of this to a friend of mine, he told me that he had found Black Draught. I bought a bottle and found it was just what I needed. I continued to take it. I am in the transfer business, and sometimes when I would be hungry and ready to eat, I would have a call and would have to eat later. Then I would eat too much or too hurriedly. This would cause indigestion. After I started using Black Draught, I found it did me a world of good. It is splendid for biliousness and stomach troubles."

FOR CONSTIPATION, INDIGESTION, BILIOUSNESS
WOMEN who need a gentle laxative should use Black Draught. It is a safe, reliable, and pleasant medicine.

"I work hard, dance and have gained 3 pounds a week since taking Vinol. My nervousness is almost gone," Mrs. F. L. Lang. Vinol is a delicious compound of cod liver peptone, iron, etc. Nervous, easily tired, anemic people are surprised how Vinol gives new pep, sound sleep and a big appetite. BAY ST. LOUIS, MISS.

A PUBLIC IMPROVEMENT WITHOUT PUBLIC COST

TO THE PEOPLE OF BAY ST. LOUIS AND HANCOCK COUNTY:—

A group interested in and confident of the growth and increased prosperity of the BAY-WAVELAND district and especially of the city of Bay St. Louis, we have planned what we believe will be a great public benefit.

We propose to build and to dedicate and grant to the people of Bay St. Louis a broad avenue and public thoroughfare, a mile long, extending from South Front Street to the Old Spanish Trail.

"SPANISH ACRES ROAD" is to begin on South Front Street, where the culvert runs into the Sound, between old Rosemary Inn, and the home of Mr. Welch which was the old Capdeville Place. For four hundred feet distance it will be 80-feet wide.

Through the pine, oak and magnolia woods it will then extend back to Third Street, an additional distance of 1300 feet. In this street, it will be 140-feet wide, with two one-way drives, and a neutral ground and parkway 60-feet wide and 1000 feet long. After this section is completed, it is then planned to extend through the pines for 1750 feet to Railroad Avenue, cross the tracks of the Louisville & Nashville railroad, and continue for 3000 feet to the Old Spanish Trail. In this distance the Avenue will be 80 feet wide, with a broad central driveway, and with wide parked space on each side.

The public highway, when completed, will be the only affording wide, easy and direct and beautiful communication from South Front Street across Third Street and Railroad Avenue to the Old Spanish Trail—between the Louisville & Nashville bridge and Nicholson Avenue in Waveland.

Every dollar of the cost of opening and building this avenue, we propose to be borne by the land which abuts upon it, and so by the owners thereof. Not one dollar of it is to appear upon the tax bills of the public, or be expected from any property save that directly facing and improved by the public thoroughfare.

We have submitted to the Honorable Mayor and Commission Council of the city of Bay St. Louis, for their approval, the plans and specifications for this public thoroughfare. We have also submitted a petition, signed by all the owners of property on this thoroughfare, asking that there be sold sold and charged and assessed against that section of the thoroughfare from South Front Street to Third Street, collectible on the tax bills of that abutting property, under existing law, Public Improvement Certificates, in a sum sufficient to defray the cost of the street improvement in that section of the whole thoroughfare.

This proposal, and the whole plan, have been submitted to a group of citizens of your community, representing your leading financial and commercial institutions. Without exception they have approved the plan and purpose as sound in principle and in practical detail, and calculated to afford real public benefit and add to the "city plan" of Bay St. Louis a needed thoroughfare and traffic artery. The method is precisely that by which the city of New Orleans is now doing practically all of its extensive additional paving and street work, with the exception that in New Orleans varying but small percentage of the whole cost is borne by the general public.

We desire and plan speedy completion of the whole program.

Within the shortest possible space of time, we wish the avenue to Third Street opened. We believe the 38 sites located in that beautiful tract, each 75 feet wide by 170 feet deep, all close to the water front, each facing an 140 foot parkway in the heart of the very best section of the BAY-WAVELAND district, will soon attract to Bay St. Louis the most desirable possible element of permanent residents, particularly those workers in New Orleans who desire such beautiful and attractive dwelling locations as is only obtainable by commuting to Bay St. Louis.

We believe the merits and attractions of Bay St. Louis as a commuting suburban residential community for New Orleans, have never been properly presented to the people of that city. Some of us already live in, or "summer" in Bay-Waveland. Others of us plan to do so.

We plan to present to others, the charm and merits which have attracted us. And we propose to offer, first, the sites described above, at prices, and on terms, and under guaranteed restrictions against detrimental influences, so persuasive, that Bay St. Louis should be assured an increased population of the most desirable and beneficial type of citizenship.

The cooperation which we have asked from the city is essential if we are to be enabled to do this.

With this well under way, we plan then, the greedy construction of the remainder of the entire thoroughfare, through to the Old Spanish Trail.

The plan of this whole thoroughfare, is the work of Harold J. Neale, one of the most distinguished landscape architects of this section, long the superintendent of Audubon Park in New Orleans, and now engaged in extensive work in New York and with contracts as far away as the Pacific Coast.

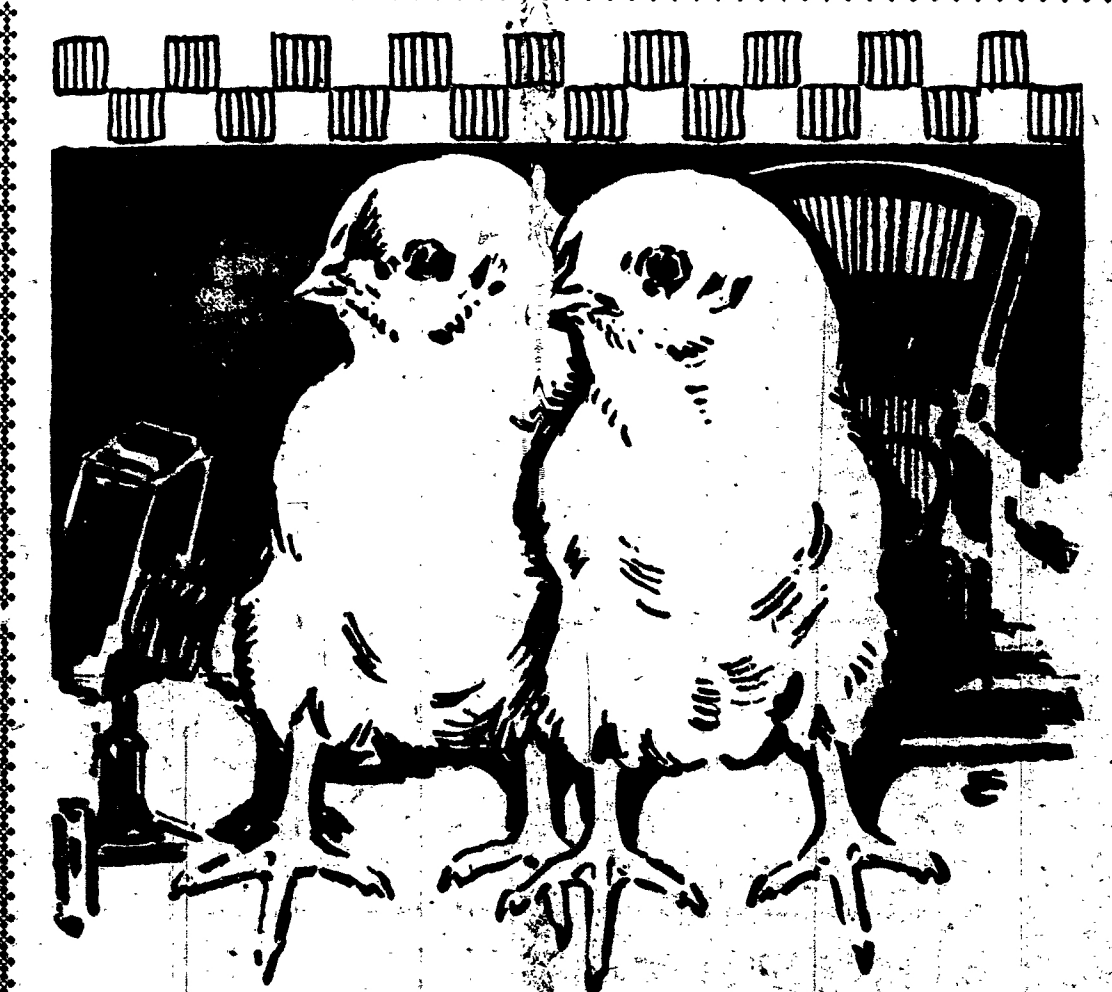

We believe the proposed thoroughfare, next to the unexcelled waterfront, will furnish as beautiful a drive and place of residence, as is to be found in the whole New Orleans-Gulf Coast Zone.

We solicit the good will and friendly words of the people of this community.

WISTERIA TIME IS ONE OF BEAUTY ON MISSISSIPPI COAST

To prejudiced Coast eyes there is no time of the year prettier than "wisteria time," a season which comes in the early spring with here, the myriad flowers of the wisteria vine perfuming the air with their sweetness and turning the landscape into a haze of entrancing beauty, lighting up spots with a mass of lavender, so feathery in texture that nothing short of fairy fingers could have fashioned the flowers which hang in graceful festoons from arbors, trellises, cling to trees or find resting places along fences.

No spot is so dear but the wisteria brightens it with its flowers, and no spot is so pretty but its beauty is enhanced with the flowering wisteria. Often the query is heard: "Why do not more people plant wisterias? They are easy to grow." And the answer is heard: "They only bloom once a year." Certainly, they bloom but once a year but who seeing the glory of the bloom at that season is not willing to devote the space in their yard to the vine for it repays its care a thousand fold over with the wonderful bloom once a year.

Many homes in Bay St. Louis and along the Coast have these wisteria vines which are this week a joy to behold.

Many other flowers are making happy visions for those who reside in this charming section so blessed by a bounteous nature. The roses are beginning to come into their spring blossom and the myriad colors from white through the pinks, reds and yellows are beautiful indeed.

Particularly pretty are the low bedding plants now in flower, such as verbenas, pansies and phlox, and the first of the larkspur are opening.

A drive along the Coast discloses a beautiful view of the low bedding plants now in flower, such as verbenas, pansies and phlox, and the first of the larkspur are opening. RECEPTION TO S. S. C. B. B. TEAM

Welcome Reception Tendered Basket Ball Team on Return From Chicago

The victorious Rock-a-chaws returned home Tuesday night to one of the biggest and warmest receptions ever given a team in the history of St. Stanislaus.

When train No. 1 reached the Bay end of the bridge, about a quarter to nine, it began blowing its whistle, and from that time on until it reached the station the town was in a turmoil. Whistles were blowing, bells ringing, the College brass band was playing the old College tune of "Hail! Hail! The Gang's All Here!" and the College student body and loyal friends were massed upon the platform bursting forth into their enthusiastic yells, proclaiming their joy at the return of their heroic team.

After the team shook hands with hundreds of friends, it was ushered into a waiting truck to be paraded through the streets of the city, followed by the College brass band and by the noisy student body and a line of automobiles driven by numerous friends of the College.

A small truck bearing the trophies that the team had won during the tournament led the parade. The trophies are an actual silver basketball, for the team taking second place in the tournament, and a silver loving cup standing about two feet high, for the team overcoming the greatest handicap to win in the second round of play.

After the trophy truck came one of the College automobiles bearing Coach Grady Perkins and Brother Peter, president of the College. Then came the team and then the brass band, the student bodies of Stanislaus and St. Joseph's Academy, followed by the townspeople. The parade of merry-makers filled up Union street from the station, turned down Second street, up Union avenue and then southward down Front street to College.

After the parade all assembled in the College, where Brother Peter, told all about the Chicago tournament briefly describing the playing of the team in each of its five games. Brother Peter then introduced the team as consisting of Leo Heinen, George Toca, Oba Ladner, Luther Saucier, Ignatius Colotta, William Wilson, Casper Cramer and Charley Genard. In conclusion Brother Peter thanked each and every one not only for the warm reception he had received but also for making it possible financially for the team to make the trip to Chicago.

After Brother Peter's talk, Coach Grady Perkins began by thanking the people for their splendid cooperation in sending the team to Chicago and for the big reception that they had given the men on their return. He said that he was more than satisfied with the team's playing, both as a whole and individually during the tournament and he declared that one of the best things was that he had the regular team in tact for next year, with more experience behind them. "I feel sort of glad that we did not take first place in the tournament this time," Mr. Perkins said in conclusion, "for I don't know what you good people might have done to us when we got back here, seeing all that you have done thus far tonight. But when we left Chicago we did not tell them up there that they might just as well start right now to engrave our names on the gold basketball, because next year we are coming up to take that and any other trophy that might be offered."

Taking up the silver cup from the table Mr. Perkins said, "This cup pleases me more than anything else. For it shows the real fight and pluck of Stanislaus team. Any team can smile when it is on top, but it takes only a real manly team to smile when 'has the short end of the score and finally come out on top."

Messrs. Emile J. Gex and Robt. L. Gexin welcomed the homecoming on behalf of the city of Bay St. Louis, and added their share to the speaking. They assured the boys that whenever they wanted to undertake anything in the line of sports, not to hesitate to ask Bay St. Louis for its support. For college teams have proved over and over again what they could do, and more especially on this occasion, and they would always find the entire backing of the city right behind them.

After the speeches were ended refreshments were served to all. Mesdames Powers, G. Y. Blaize, Boh, Geo. J. Toca, E. J. Lacoste and Misses Mary Perkins, Hermine Perkins, Boh and M. Toca took charge of the refreshment tables.

Albert Jones and Brother Regis are largely responsible for the big reception and much credit is due them for the great success that it was.
